Volunteer with the Sandy Arts Guild

Do you have a passion for the arts? Do you have the time to give back to your community? The Sandy Arts Guild is in immediate need of volunteers to help plan and facilitate the Sandy City Elementary School Art Show and the Interfaith Music Festival, along with its other cultural arts programs throughout the year. And experience is not required.

The Sandy Arts Guild is a non-profit volunteer driven organization. Their mission is to provide families in Sandy the opportunity to participate in healthy, collaborative arts, theatre and cultural programs. For 23 years, the Sandy Arts Guild has built a number of successful programs that families have come to enjoy, but these programs need committed volunteers to make them possible. For more information on how you can help, contact Karla Marsden at 568-6068 or email her at kmarsden@sandy.utah.gov.

Summit Award Winners

Garen Beck and Lyndon Jones from Lyndon Jones Construction are awarded Contractor of the Year by City Administrator, Byron Jorgenson, City Council Chairman, Chris McCandless and Public Utilities Director, Shane Pace.

Sandy takes pride in its quality of life. Part of what makes Sandy a great place to live, work and play includes the quality of construction, whether homes, commercial or public improvements. For many years, Sandy City has recognized architects, developers and construction companies that have exceeded expectations and demonstrated the highest level of professional skill. The following are the 2008 Summit Award winners presented by Sandy City Council on January 29.

Contractor of the Year – Public Utilities

Lyndon Jones Construction for the 8000 South Storm Drain Project.

Contractor of the Year

R & O Construction for the Quarry Bend Shopping Village.

Sandy City Architect of the Year

Babcock Design Group for the Quarry Bend Retail Village and Architectural Theme Book.

Sandy City Outstanding Architectural Contribution

Roderick Enterprises and GA Architects for the Pheasant Hollow Business Park.

Sandy City Home Builder of the Year

Garbett Homes for The Heights at Quarry Bend.

Sister Cities Art Competition

Sandy City Sister Cities Committee is hosting a youth art competition. Artists between the ages 13 and 18 can submit two-dimensional artwork, no larger than 24" x 30" that incorporates the theme "A Reflection of Your Community." Watercolors, oils, pastels, pen and ink, charcoal, photography, two-dimensional mixed media, and computer generated art are all acceptable media.

Entries will be judged on theme interpretation, originality and composition. Five winners will be chosen, including First Place ($300), Second Place ($200), Third Place ($100), Honorable Mention ($75) and Mayor's Pick ($75). The winners will be announced at a reception on April 11. All entries will be displayed locally at Sandy City Hall and then returned to the entrant. The first place winner will go on to the international level, where they will compete with winners from sister cities throughout the world and a chance to be one of ten winners of a $300 award and international recognition.

All entries are due by 5 p.m. on April 2, 2008 and can be brought to Sandy City Hall, Room 300, Attention: Trina Duerksen.

Entry forms can be found online at www.sandy.utah.gov/sc.
